

WILLIMANTIC

NORWICH BULLETIN
WILLIMANTIC OFFICE
Telephone 332-2
23 Church St.

At a short calendar session of the Windham county superior court held in this city Friday the civil side of the docket term came to a close. The calendar listed seven cases and all but two were stricken off. In the case of East Killingly vs. Harriet J. Scamblie the court ordered an allowance of $60, after hearing arguments. In the Scamblie case the defendant's motion for judgment was granted. In the case of Joseph Owen, decision was in favor of the plaintiff to recover with interest.

The case of John Miller vs. Henry Prodetie, a hearing in damages after default, was heard by Judge William M. Malbie. The award took place in Courtroom Oct. 16, 1921, the plaintiff being unable to work for four weeks. Judge Malbie gave judgment for the plaintiff to recover $300.

One unopposed divorce case, that of Charles S. Huling vs. Selma Huling, on grounds of desertion, was heard. Judge Malbie gave decision for the plaintiff on these grounds after hearing the testimony. Court was then declared adjourned without date.

TO STOP COUGHING AT NIGHT.
When anyone is suffering from a bronchial affection or has a cough that keeps on and grows worse at night, the use of sheep brandy to soothe the inflamed throat and loosen the phlegm is a recognized remedy. Sheep Brand is a pure, natural product, and its use is recommended by the highest medical authorities. It is a family remedy for coughs, colds and croup. See & Osgood Co.

Following the session, jurors for the criminal term were drawn by Clerk Warner of the court and Sheriff Charles A. Gates as follows: Windham: E. F. Whitmore, Timothy E. Sullivan, John C. Barstow, Charles M. Holbrook, Putnam, Leonel Charon, Josias Rivard, Brooklyn, Frank A. Chase, Ashford, George D. Smith, Canterbury, Andrew Clark, E. C. Burdick, Chaplin, Burton M. Welch, Eastford, Matthew Stone, Hampton, L. H. Barnham, Irving L. Carey, Killingsby, Abel L. Reeves, Joseph Hallam, Plainfield, James Gorman, John A. Bittgood, Pomfret, J. E. Goddard, George S. Platt, Scotland, A. H. Galtup, Sterling, Arthur Miller, Thompson, Ephraim Smith, Woodstock, Charles A. Harrington.

Twenty girls and thirty-two boys attained perfect attendance records at Model School during the fall term which closed this week. The pupils are:

Grade 1—Russell Benson, Edward Bowman, John W. Keefe, Stanley Sawicki, Marian Bass, Beulah Watson.

Grade 2—Thurston Brown, William Grzegorzewski, Joseph Kurko, George Lewis Felix Rex, Laura Belanger, Dorothy James, Eileen O'Connor, Charlotte Webster, Louis Wilson.

Grade 3—Willie Clark, Barbara Elliott, Kathleen Gracia, Agnes Gomond, Kerman Lavigne, Cecil Martin, Rudolph Polack, Robert Smith, William Smith, Katherine Scoll.

Grade 4—John Bedney, Helen Cholan, Anna Duda, Irene Handfield, Cecilia Hardman, John Kurko, Sophie Kummie, Robert Lincoln, David Smythe, George Wilcox, Gordon Windmiller, Ida Tanner.

Grade 5—James Hendry, John Hard-

The Secret of Good Health

Assist Nature back to normal action

Take

Beecham's Pills

Sold everywhere in boxes

10c—12 pills
25c—40 pills
50c—90 pills

man, Mildred Benson, Pauline Nolan.

Grade 4—Christine Windmiller, Laurence Monroe, Atton Lewis, Theodore Tanner.

Grade 5—Antonina Magliocco.

Grade 6—James Bus.

Grades 1, 2 and 3—Fred Tanner.

Kindergarten—Vincent McSweeney.

Opportunity Room—Raymond Bittings, Russell Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dazy and son Emil of No. 7 Natchaug street, narrowly escaped death by asphyxiation by gas Friday morning. William Broussau who lives on the lower floor, being awakened by the sound of a fall, rushed up stairs, then immediately set for aid. Mr. Dazy awakened about 5 o'clock in the morning and was in a drowsy condition. On stepping out of bed he found that he could hardly stand and fell once while trying to get to the kitchen for a drink of water. His fall awoke Mr. Broussau, who came upstairs, and after some struggle Mr. Dazy managed to get to the door and unlock it, letting his neighbor, Mrs.

Dazy and the boy were found unconscious and a doctor was called. Restoratives were sent for and in about an hour the family was out of danger. All were then taken out doors and walked slowly in the open air until the effects of the gas had left their systems. A leak in the joint of a pipe connected with the gas range caused a flow of gas into the rooms in the house.

Postmaster John O'Rourke stated Friday that his men "were there," and by that statement meant that they would manage to get every Christmas article delivered to residents of this city before Christmas morning. The rush at the office started Wednesday and since then the amount handled daily has increased steadily until it has hit the high figure set for last year when all records were broken. The total volume this year sets a high record for the office, however, as daily now there are coming in over 200 sacks of parcel post mail which must be handled aside from ordinary mail. Outgoing sacks have averaged nearly 200 a day since Wednesday. Every night this week the men have cleaned up everything that came in during the day and with the extra help will continue to do so. Three substitute carriers and three substitute clerks are aiding in the work. Friday morning a large motor truck was used to convey the mail to and from the station and each train brought in a pile of sacks of mail that had to be sorted by the clerks and carriers at the office.

Engine Company No. 1 was called out at 4:45 by a siren alarm for a chimney fire at 18 Spring street in a house owned by E. S. West and occupied by Arvid and four Woodard. Gallons of chemical was used to extinguish the blaze.

Chief of Police Daniel Killourey stated Friday that he had heard no report of an accident told of in the Manchester correspondence in the Hartford Courant Friday morning. The article read as follows: A peculiar accident occurred yesterday which narrowly missed being a tragic affair. Edwin P. Jellison of Manchester in company with Robert Fitzpatrick, a day of his town, while riding from Willimantic in a Oakland roadster came in contact with a low hanging guy wire that broke the windshield and damaged the side curtains. The matter was reported to the Willimantic police.

The body of Mrs. Minnie L. Henry who died Wednesday at Mansfield, was removed from the undertaking parlors of day. She was buried in the St. Bridgette, Maine, where funeral services will take place.

Mabel E. Wilson, 12, died Friday morning at the home of her parents in Chaplin. She was born in Chaplin, December 29, 1906, the daughter of Charles P. and Maudie Ellis Wilson. Besides her parents she leaves brothers and sisters as follows: Marian, Myra, Rita, Orin P., Freeman A., George and James Wilson.

Funeral services for Paul Fontaine, Jr., son of Paul and Anna Paquette Fontaine, who died Thursday night at the home of his parents, were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Mrs. Julia Agnes Bach died Thursday night at her home on Jackson street after an illness of a week. She was born in Holyoke, Mass., the daughter of Mark and Agnes Graham Thomas. She leaves her husband, Allan Bach, an infant daughter, and a mother, Mrs. Agnes Thomas, all of this city.

Brief Notes.
Christmas exercises of St. Paul's Episcopal church were held Thursday night, the entertainment being a pageant illustrating the birth of Christ and the search of the Three Wise Men. Following the entertainment gifts were distributed and members of the church school offered their gifts on the stage. All gifts are to be given the Salvation Army for distribution.

Mrs. George Strong left Friday for Providence where she will spend Christmas with relatives.

William T. McKernan of Columbia university is at the home of his father, J. H. McKernan of Eagleville.

Through the efforts of the chamber of commerce late night runs are being made on the Willimantic-South Coventry lines tonight (Saturday). The new trips will be at 8:15, 9:15 and 10:15.

Engine Company No. 1 was called out Friday morning at 8:40 o'clock for a chimney fire at the home of Charles Keables, 208 Prospect street. Thirty-eight gallons of chemical were used to put out the fire. The owner of the house is Charles Baker.

Mrs. Mary Quinn is in Hartford spending the holidays with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. L. Moses of the Ridge left Friday for Westfield, Mass., where they will spend the holiday with their daughter, Mrs. Robert Hildreth.

Snow fell during the early hours of

R. G. REMINGTON REO

DISTRIBUTOR FOR ALL OF
WINDHAM COUNTY

Large supply of parts carried in stock.

Satisfactory work on all makes of cars.
EXPERT MECHANICS
RADIATOR REPAIRING
A SPECIALTY
In Rear 935 Main Street
Willimantic, Conn.

JAY M. SHEPARD
Succeeding Filmore & Shepard
Funeral Director & Embalmer
60-62 NORTH ST. WILLIMANTIC
Lady Assistant. Tel. Connection

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
65 Union St.
Phone 292 (Lady Assistant)

We extend the SEASONS
GREETINGS

J. B. FULLERTON CO.
WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

SLASHING ALL FORMER PRICES

THE REMARKABLE RESPONSE AND ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME OF THE PUBLIC TO OUR WONDERFUL MONEY-SAVING SALE IS A CLEAR AND DECISIVE ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF THE SPLENDID MONEY-SAVING VALUES WE ARE OFFERING.

THE RADICAL DIFFERENCE BETWEEN OUR SALES AND OTHERS IS THAT WE STAKE OUR REPUTATION ON, AND BACK THEM WITH AN IRON-BOUND GUARANTEE.

PLAN TO BE ON HAND TODAY, DON'T HESITATE A SECOND. COME, JUDGE WITH YOUR OWN EYES.

BROOKLYN OUTFITTERS

"THE STORE THAT SATISFIES"
266-270 Main Street
Norwich, Conn.

Friday covering the ground with considerable snow. In the morning rain began and froze as fast as it struck the ground. Walking and riding became difficult, but accidents were few.

Special Christmas services are to be held in all local churches Sunday.

At the Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. John Pearce, pastor, will preach at 10:45 o'clock. Church school at noon. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Special music.

At the First Congregational church, Rev. Harry S. McCready, pastor, will preach at 10:45 o'clock. Children's story, The Potter's Son. Sermon, Immortal. Church school meets at 9:45 a. m. Men's forum at noon, subject, The Parable of the Unjust Steward. Christmas vesper service at 4 p. m.

At the First Baptist church, Rev. A. D. Carpenter, pastor, will preach at 10:45 o'clock. Church school at noon. Christian Endeavor meeting at 6. Evening service at 7, subject, A Christmas Carol.

Christian Science service is held Sunday morning in the Woman's Club rooms, No. 803 Main street at 10:45 o'clock. Subject of the lesson-sermon, Christmas. Sunday school immediately following morning service.

Hundreds will be pleased this (Saturday)-evening when the Christmas carol singers stop near the houses of those who have asked and sung. A lighted candle in the window is a sign that one wants the carols sung in front of his home.

COLCHESTER
Miss Annie Rutka, who is at the Hartford hospital is resting comfortably after a serious operation.

Mrs. John Condrin and Miss Fannie Cargen were visitors in Middletown, Wednesday. Miss Cargen expects to enter the business college next term.

Miss Mollie Slater and niece, Miss Virginia of East Hampton, were calling on friends in town Thursday.

Judge H. P. Buell, who has been confined to his home on South Main street for the past week on account of illness was able to be at his place of business Thursday.

Deacon Alden A. Baker is seriously ill at his home on South Main street. Mr. Baker is in his 89th year.

On account of the illness of Mrs. Robina Hart Brooks, wife of Prof. James Brooks, the cantata "Esther," which was to have been given December 21st by the High School pupils has been indefinitely postponed.

The Episcopal services will be held in the Baptist church Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. T. D. Martin will officiate at the celebration of the holy communion. The Baptist congregation will unite with them in the services.

Daniel M. O'Brien left Monday for a short visit in New Haven.

Henry Digby, who has been visiting friends in town the past two weeks returned Thursday to his home in Royalton, Vt.

Joseph Kelly, foreman on the New London end of the state road job, was at the state road office here, Wednesday.

Work on the state road job was suspended Wednesday night for the winter, the ground having frozen so hard that the work of shoveling, etc., was impossible.

Mrs. Clark Z. Otis, of New York is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. T. Van Cleave, for the holidays.

James L. Root will spend the holidays at his home, New Haven.

At the Congregational church Sunday Christmas services will be held at 10:45 o'clock. Rev. W. A. Berckman, the pastor, will preach. Sunday school Christmas concert in the church at 4 p. m.

Cohen Bros. shirt factory is putting in another boiler, the present one not being large enough for heating the building and use in their steamers. The factory is running full time and is rushed with orders. The shop has been enlarged, a number of new machines will be put in and the working force increased after the New Year begins.

Domnick Tiano, master mechanic on the state road job will spend the holiday at his home in Derby.

James Johnson was in Elkonk, Thursday.

GALES FERRY
The community Christmas tree, carol singing, Christmas solos and Christmas play, with the reading of a Christmas story, given under the auspices of the Village Improvement association, in the Country club house, was largely attended Wednesday evening. Of 100 children were decorated with running pine and the electric lights were shaded with pink. Rev. Allen Shaw Bush, president of the association, was chairman, and the following program was given as arranged by Miss Caroline B. Freeman and D. R. Povey: Singing, Mark, the Herald Angels Sing, by audience. Mrs. Rufus W. Hubbard at the piano; Christmas Greeting, Rev. G. H. Wright; Christmas play entitled On Christmas Eve, written by Constance D'Arcy Mackay and given under the direction of Miss Freeman. Following were the characters and the children who impersonated them: The Little Girl, Dorothy Birch; Wendy, Rose Beth Bennett; Alice, Dorothy Fabel; Robinson Crusoe, Paul Miller; Boy from the North Wind, Master Richard Lattimer; The Bagdad Traveler, Gordon McIntire; Hansel and Gretel, Eleanor Smith and Helen De Ruha; Hush-a-by-Baby, Edith Fabel; Santa Claus, Myrtle Coman; Mother, Ruth Fabel. Carols by the audience, followed by the singing of No. Three King impersonated by Ruth Fabel, Edith Fabel and Myrtle Coman. Christmas solo, Miss Grace A. Chapman; reading, The Three Kings, Mrs. Grace W. Hubbard; Povey, Christmas tree lighted by electricity, room darkened, and singing by children; solo, Nazareth, by Courtland E. Colver; Miss Grace W. Hubbard closing hymn, O Come, All Ye Faithful. All were invited to meet at the clubhouse Christmas and join in singing Christmas carols through the village.

The village school, Mrs. Winifred Crancan of Norwich teacher, closed Friday afternoon for the Christmas vacation of the week. Mrs. Cran- can, who has been a present and candy. The New London Savings bank gave each pupil a remembrance. This school is now one of the thirty schools who are members of the pupils, 17 of whom have started a savings account. During the past four weeks their savings have amounted to $23.75. This school is also the only one in the town of Ledyard in the Junior Red Cross and the only one in eastern Connecticut with 100 per cent enrollment in this work.

The pupils in the school perfect in attendance for December were Robert Allyn, Harry Allyn, Douglas Fabel, Walter Johnson, Louie Jennings, Paul Miller, William McNaught, Warren Norcross, Gordon Manjerro, Warren Norcross, J. Edmund Norman, J. E. Edith Fabel, Dorothy Fabel, Ruth Fabel, Ruth Johnson, Helen De Ruha, Edith Main, Rose Norcross, Peggy Parker, Viola Riley, Eleanor Smith, Myrtle Coman.

Those perfect for the fall term were Robert Allyn, Harry Allyn, Paul Miller, William McNaught, Warren Norcross, J. Edmund Norman, Jr., Joseph De Ruha, Edith Fabel, Ruth Fabel, Dorothy Fabel, Helen De Ruha, Rose Norcross, Peggy Parker, Viola Riley and Eleanor Smith.

The teacher, the pupils of the school and their parents have been invited by Capt. and Mrs. Frank D. Berrien of the submarine base to an entertainment to be given tonight (Christmas eve) at the base, when Santa Claus will arrive there on board a submarine. Through the courtesy of Capt. and Mrs. Berrien auto trucks will be sent here for the transportation of the guests.

The Christmas celebration for the Sunday school of the M. E. church was held in the vestry Friday evening at 7 o'clock. The decorations were in charge of Mrs. J. Edmund Norman and Mrs. Eugene LaFontaine's class of girls. B. T. Irving Harbitt provided the tree, and Santa Claus was there. This school is also invited to attend the Christmas eve entertainment given at the submarine base, with transportation afforded by Capt. and Mrs. Berrien, the same as for the public school of the village.

The circulation of books of the Gales Ferry free public library has been excellent through December, averaging 75 books a week. Gifts of books are being received from interested friends. The attendant for Tuesday recently has been Mrs. Fanny A. Mottrop, and for Friday Mrs. Emma S. Bennett.

Scoutmaster Dudley C. Perkins and Assistant Scoutmaster Courtland E. Colver attended the scout's supper at the state armory in New London Monday evening and heard scout leaders talk on scout work.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blackwell and young son are spending Mr. Blackwell's vacation from his duties at the submarine base in Providence at the home of Mr. Blackwell's parents.

Mrs. Delphine Fish returned Tuesday from a visit in Hartford with Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks.

Ernest Maynard of Pepperell, Mass., is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Eliza D. Maynard, and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene LaFontaine, in the Standard district.

Fred W. Smith entertained at dinner Wednesday John Flynn, Joseph P. Cummings, John Doyle and Patrick Brown, all of Norwich.

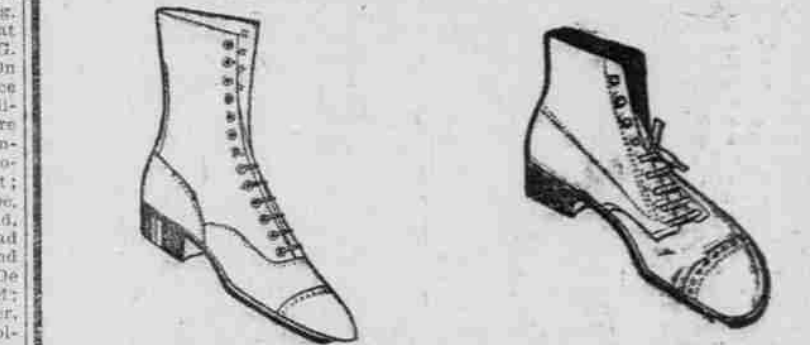

The sudden drop in the temperature was very marked. From Wednesday morning, when it was comfortable, to Thursday morning at 7 o'clock the mer-cure was down to 6 above at Perkins place.

Christmas (Sunday) evening at 7 o'clock a public service of story and song entitled The Shepherd and Usam for their gift by the choir of the M. E. church.

EAST KILLINGLY
All are praising the cantata given by the children of the East Killingly school. The cantata was a patriotic one. Several well known characters were present, including Uncle Sam, Miss Columbia, Santa Claus, Uncle Sam's Postman and numerous elves and spirits of good cheer and helpfulness. The church was ably assisted by Miss Bowman, the music teacher and Earl Whitaker of Danielson. Great praise was due the teachers, the Misses Page and Usam for their risk and patience in training the children. The church was very prettily decorated. Mrs. A. S. Wade is ill.

Ferry Hammond has moved to Danielson.

Pre-Holiday Shoe Sale

Shoe your family in our Shoe Store, and save for other holiday gifts.

Open Until 8 P. M. During Sale

GOLDBLATT'S SHOE STORE
46 Franklin Street
Norwich, Conn.

NOTICE!

Commencing January 1, 1922, to apply on bills rendered commencing February 1, 1922, the price of gas furnished by this Department will be as follows:

First 5,000 cu. ft. per month, 13½ cts. per 100 cu. ft.
Next 10,000 cu. ft. per month, 12½ cts. per 100 cu. ft.
All over 15,000 cu. ft. per month, 11½ cts. per 100 cu. ft.
Consumer charge 90 cts. per month.

Consumers using in excess of 1,000,000 cu. ft. per month will be billed at 11½ cts. per hundred cu. ft. for all gas consumed, plus the consumer charge.

A charge of two dollars (2.00) will be made for the removing and resetting of meters which have been installed for less than one year.

The above rates are effective in accordance with Sec. 1987 of the Revised General Statutes of the State of Connecticut, Revision of 1902.

CITY OF NORWICH GAS AND ELECTRICAL DEPT.

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE

Willimantic, Conn.

SUGGESTIONS

For the Last Minute Shoppers
Have you forgotten any one, or going to give something different than what you had planned. The following suggestions may help you at the last moment:

Silk or Warm Wool Hosiery for Gifts
These are gifts women always welcome, and here are the good qualities and colors.—Silks are as low as $1.00 up to $2.98 pair.—Woolens are priced at $1.00 and up to $2.50 a pair.

Gloves Are Always Welcome
A pair of Gloves always solves the perplexing question of "what to give," and always find a welcome spot on Milady's Dressers.

Kid Gloves, in tan, brown and black, are $2.00 a pair. Imported French Kid Gloves, are $2.75 a pair. Chamoisette Gauntlets, are $2.98 a pair. Heavy, double-tip Silk Gloves, $1.50 a pair. Woolen Gauntlet and Gloves, at 89c, 98c, $1.19 and $1.25 a pair.

GIVE BOOKS
Books can be easily selected from our large collection.—Books for Children, and Books for older people, in fact, you can find Books here to suit every one's taste, and can be selected at the last minute.

HANDKERCHIEFS
For the Last Minute Shoppers
An easy gift to select, especially when you have a wide assortment to choose from. Always acceptable and one never has too many.

Pure Linen Colored Handkerchiefs, 25c each
Pure Linen, White, Hand-embroidered corners, 25c, 35c, and 50c each.
Genuine Venice edge, embroidered corners, 50c, 75c each Pure Linen, hand-embroidered "Madeira, 75c, $1.25 each.
Pure Linen, colored, hand-embroidered, 50c
Swiss Lawn, hand-embroidered, 25c, 35c and 50c each.
Women's Pure-Linen, plain, 15c each
Men's Pure-Linen, 29c and 50c
Men's colored border Handkerchiefs, guaranteed, 25c each

A Gift Dainty — LINGERIE
Perhaps no other articles can convey the feeling of intimate friendship more than a gift of dainty Lingerie — unlike ordinary underthings, every piece in this display has new features to attract the donor and delight the recipient.

STATIONERY
Every one likes to have in reserve, some real nice Writing Paper and Envelopes for special occasions, but few ever think of buying it for their own use. Then give what you would like to have given to you.

NECKWEAR
An always useful gift, put up in pretty holly boxes, and only need your card of Christmas greeting—easy to select, 50c to $1.50.

HANDBAGS
There is always a need for a Hand Bag, and the quality of them in this display is reliable in every instance, and prices are low enough to please the most thrifty.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.